

Pope Francis I

We believe that a marriage is a sacred union of one committed man and one committed woman in which each one promises, in God's name, to build a loving and faithful relationship that will last a lifetime.

We believe that when a marriage is true to God's loving plan, it brings spiritual, physical, and emotional benefits not only to a couple and family, but also to the church and to the community.

We recognize our responsibility to help couples begin, build, and sustain better marriages and to restore those threatened by divorce. We call and seek the help of mission-minded couples, as volunteers, to help us bear that responsibility. Motivated by our common desire and mission objective that God's kingdom be manifested on earth as it is in heaven, we commit to being a service ministry toward this common goal using weekend seminars, retreats, and classes.

*two hearts,
two souls,
one love.*

*a feeling of knowing
that someone
is there
to trust,
to believe in,
to comfort,
and care.*

Love is a gift.

*"The Lord is knocking at
the door of our hearts.
Have we put a sign on the
door saying,
'Do Not Disturb'?"*

(Pope Francis, January 13, 2014)

Spend the weekend together...
with us

You are invited to spend with us a weekend that will enrich and re-energize your marriage.

Why not put the world's pressures on hold for a few days and focus on the most important person in your life... your spouse?

In today's busy world, married couples are pulled in so many different directions. Couples face family, job, health, financial, and social pressures that consume time and energy and keep them separate. Often, everything and everyone seem to take priority... but our spouse.

Do you ever ask yourself – "When did we have the time for us?" Remember, God does not guarantee us tomorrow... only TODAY!

Take the time you deserve to deepen your love and intimacy, bring more joy in your relationship and build a stronger marital foundation.
